

End of Year Results 2015-2016

In the 2015-16 school year, CIS served a total of 18,940 students at 22 school sites in 5 school districts. Of these students, 1,857 are considered at-risk and received CIS case managed supports designed to improve their attendance, behavior, and academics. Below are their outcomes.

STUDENT ATTRIBUTES

- 85% students of color
- 76% eligible for free/reduced lunch
- 18% special education
- 14% alternative education
- 10% English language learners
- 10% transferred before the end of the school year
- 4% pregnant or parenting

CIS CASE MANAGED STUDENT OUTCOMES

97% stay in school rate

87% graduation rate

80% promotion rate among students K-11

58% improvement in attendance

71% improvement in behavior

68% improvement in academics

3,835 parents, guardians, and family members engaged

423 volunteers contributing 930 hours of community service

218 community partners engaged

A Closer Look at Other CIS Programs

In addition to its model of Integrated Student Supports, CIS also implemented several out of school time programs and college and career readiness programs in the 2015-16 school year.

Out of School Time Programs*

- 506 students across 10 school sites were served
- 60% of students improved their reading grades
- 56% of students improved their math grades
- 54% of students reduced their absences
- 69% of students reduced their behavior infractions

College & Career Readiness Programs

- 329 students across 7 school sites were served
- 89% of case managed students met their career readiness goals
- 78% of case managed students met their college readiness goals
- 74% of College Bound students persisted at Lehigh Carbon Community College, completing two full semesters
- 32 students from the Allentown ReEngagement Center earned their diploma or GED
- 100% of seniors in the ELECT Fatherhood program graduated with their diplomas
- 93% of students participating in the Whitehall Summer Jobs Program reported improved applied academic skills